

Decision Tree

The decision tree is useful if you want to understand the level of severity of the PSC.
It can also be used to monitor changes in the level of severity over time.

- 1. Use the answers from the questionnaire
- 2. Observe and assess the patient’s peristomal skin for discoloration (size of discoloration \leq 10cm²) and tissue overgrowth
- 3. Go through the Decision Tree to establish the level of severity

Start here to assess the level of PSC

